

What are your Career Interests?

Artistic - the creators

People with Artistic interests like work that deals with the artistic side of things, such as acting, music, art, singing and design. They like creativity in their work and work that can be done without following a set of rules.

Artist; Singer; Actor-Actress; Fashion Designer

Conventional - the organizers

People with Conventional interests like work that follows set procedures and routines. They prefer working with information and paying attention to details rather than working with ideas. They like working with clear rules and following a strong leader. Accountant; Secretary; Cashier; Postal Worker

Enterprising - the persuaders

People with Enterprising interests like work that has to do with starting up and carrying out business projects. These people like taking action rather than thinking about things. They like persuading and leading people, making decisions, and taking risks for profits. Judge; Manager; Lawyer, CEO

Investigative - the thinkers

People with Investigative interests like work that has to do with ideas and thinking rather than physical activity or leading people. They like searching for facts and figuring out problems. Scientist; Veterinarian; Engineer, Doctor

Realistic - the doers

People with Realistic interests like work that includes practical, hands-on problems and answers. Often people with Realistic interests do not like careers that involve paperwork or working closely with others. They like working with plants and animals; real-world materials like wood, tools, and machinery; and outside work. Auto Repair; Truck Driver; Landscaper; Carpenter

Social - the helpers

People with Social interests like working with others to help them learn and grow. They like working with people more than working with objects, machines, or information. They like teaching, giving advice, and helping and being of service to people. Teacher; Nurse; Police Officer; Probation Officer; Counselor

