What if I need to earn a high school equivalency diploma?

We can help!

First register and have your current skills assessed. If your assessment indicates that you might be ready to pass any of the sections of the test, we will offer you free practice tests for those sections.

Not ready to test yet? We offer free classes both mornings and evenings in Canton, Massillon, and Alliance.

Our teachers will help you:

- Learn what you need to know to pass the test.
- Determine when you are ready to take the test in each subject.
- Get free practice tests.
- Register to take high school equivalency test.

What other free classes are available?

College Bridge Classes

Have a diploma but need to improve your scores to pass a test to get into a training program? We have study materials for most tests. Our teachers will help you learn what you need to know to pass.

Registered for classes at Stark State or Kent State Stark but found out you need to take some remedial classes before you are ready for college level classes? Ask the college about our free bridge classes offered on these campuses.

English Classes (for speakers of other languages)

Do you need to learn to speak, understand, read, and write English for work, school, and community participation? Do you want to earn a certificate for ServSafe Food Handling or STNA, or learn about starting your own business in the United States? Join our free classes at the Adult College and Career Readiness Center (116 McKinley Ave. N.W. in downtown Canton.)

Register for English classes any Monday at 9:00 a.m. or 5:30 p.m.
