

Dialogues

Purpose:

To provide an opportunity for students to react to ideas and extend their thinking about the material being studied. To permit students to think about conflicts and possible solutions.

Students write a dialogue between two or more persons, historical figures or characters being studied. These conversations might reflect a historical event or a problem that needs to be solved. The dialogue could also include the students themselves.